Executive Council

The members of the Executive council, although independent of each other, have co-operated well together this year. They have direct supervision over the studentbody affairs, committees, and organizations, and represent the studentbody in inter-collegiate activities and relations. It is their job to carry out the program of activity outlined by the Legislative Council.

Four of the most helpful people in the service of the students at BYU are: LeRoy Porter, Assistant to the Co-ordinator; Dr. Royden C. Braithwaite, Fall Quarter Student Co-ordinator; Dr. Henry L. Isakson, Winter and Spring Quarter Student Co-ordinator; and Jane Schaerrer, Secretary.

Student Coordinator

Legislative Council

The Legislative council is our representing body in the student government. They consider student-body problems and initiate action for the welfare of the studentbody. They have the power to make new statutes and reject old statutes of our constitution.

Activities

CASCADE MOUNTAIN

Family Life at Home was

A section of the Family Life Project constructed to provide housing for approximately one thousand girls. These housing units are part of the University's ten million dollar expansion program.

Come now, Esmarelda, it's Sunday School tomorrow.

Enlightening our minds with the knowledge of the world—the Banyan.

Never like This

The 16 newly-erected family-living units offer to the girls who occupy them a chance to learn to live well with others and improve themselves socially. They are a new experiment in social living, and each has one large central living and reception room. Each is also provided with a common game room. Outside barbecue pits and accessories have been set up to add to the attractiveness of these units.

Tomato juice—only 19c?

Your 20 minutes are up, Kathleen.

Angels, reindeer, girls—you can find anything in a Family Life Unit

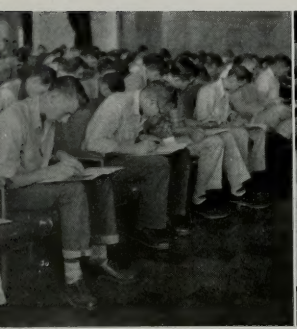

First course in lawnology.

All this to go to college.

And where is your home town?

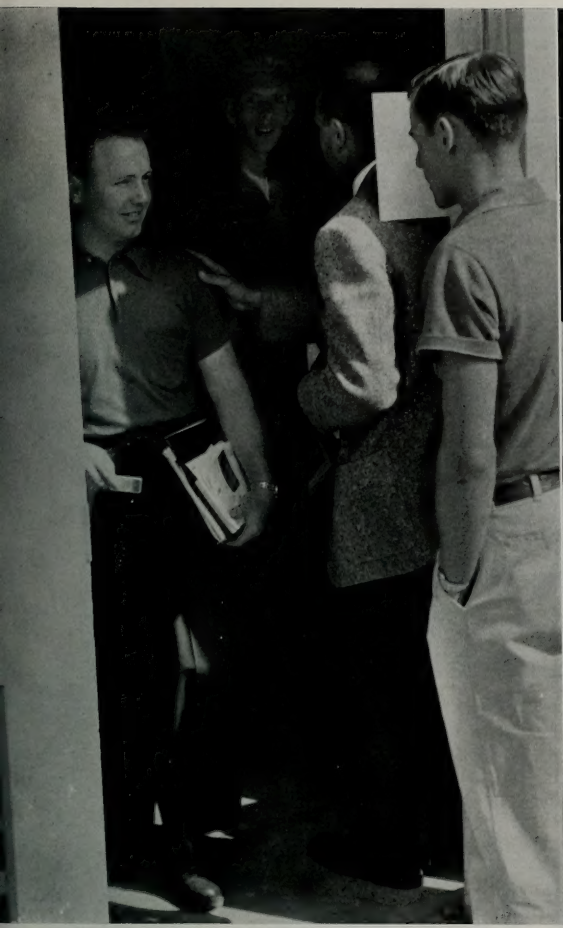

Well, I haven't decided on a major yet.

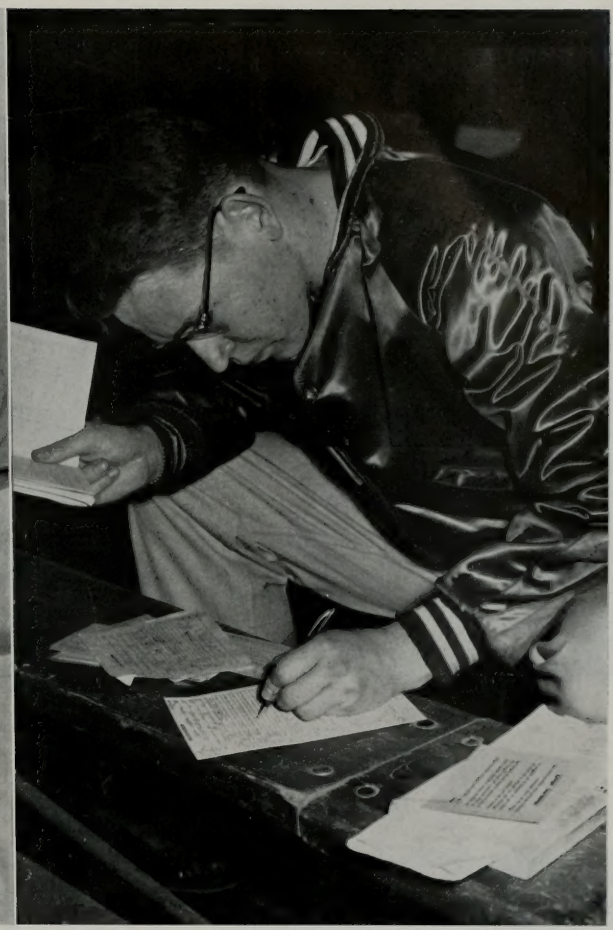

Good old B. Y. U. red tape.

Orientation and Registration

Phew, finished at last.

Don't give up, kid, they'll kick you out at five.

And they expect you to dance.

Under the leadership of Bob Chambers, this committee, here showing La Rae Dunn and Linda Worsley, organized orientation activities.

Week

Students gather from all nations.

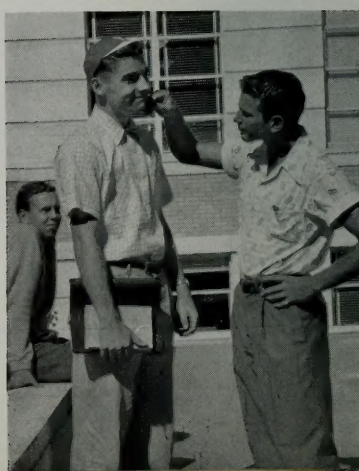

Please, darling, won't you raise my allowance?

Hello Week

Cougars have whiskers like these?

This will teach you not to stray from the paths of Cougarism.

Put your shoes on, Lucy, you're in the city now.

Cub Week

Autumn Leaf Hike and Hop

Although the annual hike was canceled because of rain this year, the dance was fun and "dry," and plans are being made with the weather man to cancel the rain instead of the hike next year.

Nothing like a good dance to make up for a rained out hike.

Help yourselves, it's on the house.

Arsenic and Old Lace

"Arsenic and Old Lace," by Joseph Kesselring, under the direction of Dr. Gledhill is the story of two old sisters who always "get their man," usually with poison. Lorna Erickson and Julia Groberg portrayed the leading roles as the two old maids, Abbey and Martha Brewster.

Lorna Erickson and Julie Groberg help Randy Buchanan try out Dr. Martin's gargle.

Martha and Abbey interrupt the murder of Dr. Einstein.

Sophomore Loan Fund Ball

Queen Marilyn Ballard and attendants Carol Dunford and Audrey King.

The Soph's did a good job. The Ball's a success.

Fieldhouse Follies

Winning women's quartet—Valerie Sasine, Marilyn Spencer, Sylvia Tyler, Juna Abbott.

With dancing, singing, laughter, and to top it all, lovely homecoming queen Dixie Robison and her attendants Lois Humphries, and Marilyn McFarland, the fieldhouse follies proved to be one of the most outstanding pieces of work in the entertainment series this year. Special attractions on the program were "Dancing Dick" Moody, and Mose Flake, a fine comedian, both former alumni, who added tremendously to this show.

Dixie Robison being crowned by Mrs. Ernest Wilkinson in the presence of her court.

Homecoming

Members of the Hawaiian Club working on their original prize winning float.

The humorous winning float, "Ma Kettle of the House of Israel"

The Sweepstakes go to Viking Social Unit.

Tokalon's entry received the award for the most beautiful float.

The alums came home as usual, the floats paraded down University Avenue like before, and the dance and football game thrilled all. But this Homecoming Day was a little different and special, perhaps because it was your first or your last.

The Homecoming Dance climaxed the weeks activities.

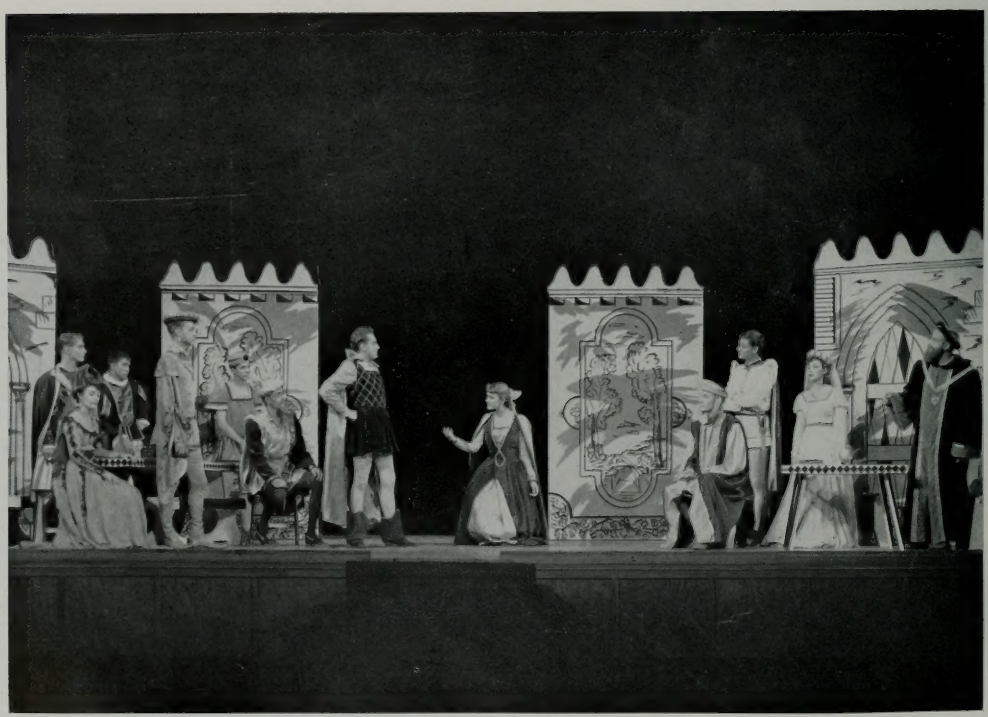

The Taming of the Shrew

In those days they removed their shoes.

Anne Cullimore and Ralph Lundgreen played the leading roles in Shakespeare's immortal marital comedy of a shrewish girl and the man who marries her to tame her.

I surrender unto thee, O Master.

"You ain't going to make a sissy out of Sonny."

On Borrowed Time

The warmly human story of people who have reached the end of their lives on earth and how they react when death comes to call them away. The principal parts were led by Alec Andrus, Scott Whittaker, RaNae Green, Sharon Buchanan, Robert Chambers, and Pat Moody.

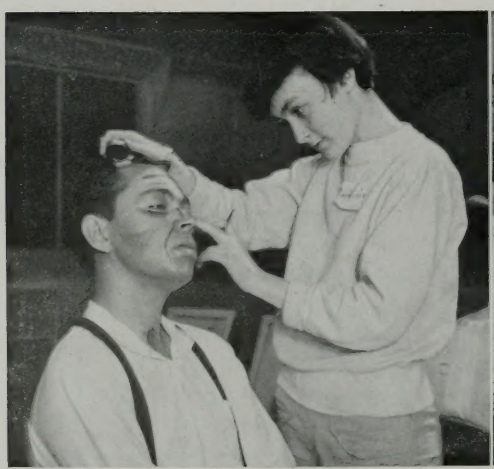

"What's a shrike, grandpa?"
"A shrike pokes a bird, Sonny."

Key

Looks like Brad Powell went "up in the air" over Marilyn Worsley.

Transfiguration by Kathy Bassett to Ken Parry.

A well earned reward.

Key Note, directed by Virgil Camp, written by Ron Wilcox, with words and music by Lyndia Worsley, was a huge success.

Garth Uibel and Cherie McMillan star dance performers of "Key Note."

Note

Another prize-winning performance.

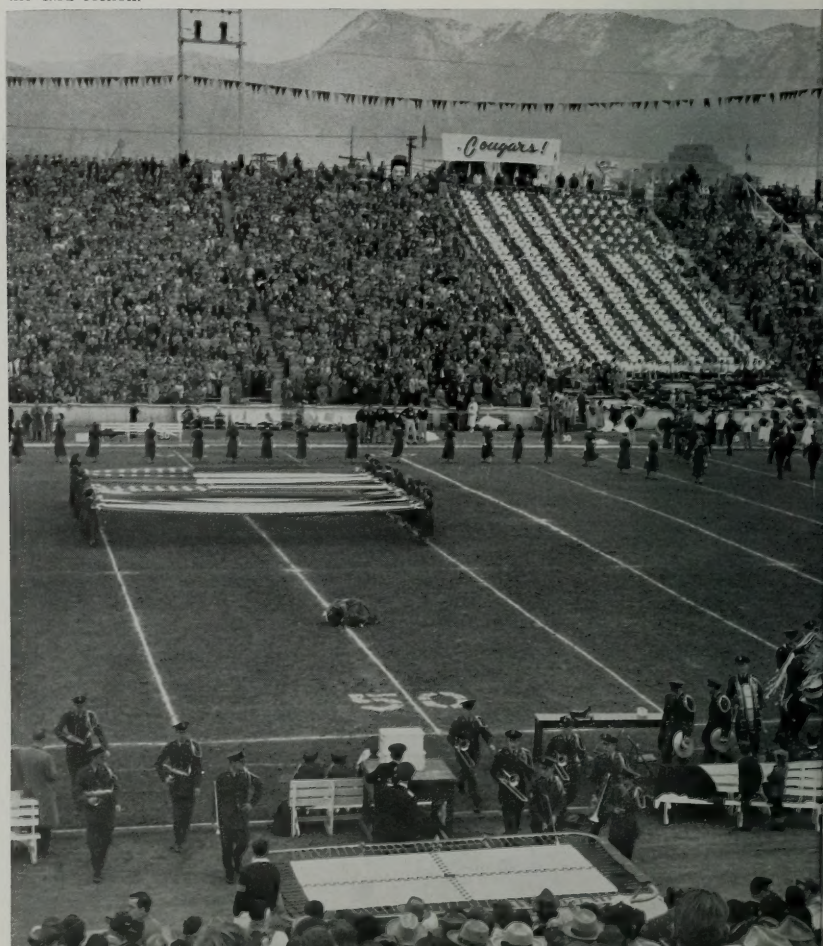

Card Stunts at Thanksgiving

Fifty million spectators viewed either directly or by TV, the magnificent card stunts exhibiting various symbols pertaining to the great Ute-Cougar Thanksgiving game. This was the first time this stunt had ever been used by BYU and it received tremendous applause. To Dwayne Stevensen and his committee we owe a vote of thanks for this professional job.

In the Ute Stadium in Salt Lake City the ROTC Band and Cougarettes display typical BYU talent on the Thanksgiving Day national television broadcast while students form "Old Glory" in the card section.

Preference Ball

Quinn McKay being crowned most Preferred Man by lovely June Lorenzen.

Sponsored by the Associated Women Students, the Preference Ball is one of the most successful dances of the year. Turning the tables on the boys, the girls prefer their individual dates in a special election and crown the studentbody's favorite male, Preferred Man of BYU.

The Preferred Men's court.

Lynn Staheli decorating the school Christmas tree in the Science Building.

Every year brings Christmas Drives and busy committees, but no committee worked harder than 1953's Christmas committee. Under the leadership of Lynn Staheli, Provo's needy experienced a merry Christmas and the students who stayed in Provo during the holidays didn't miss home quite so much.

Christmas Drive

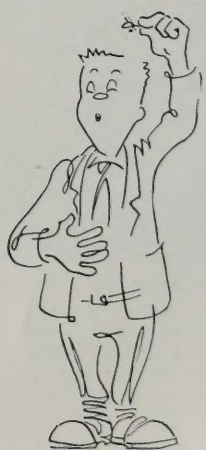

The Messiah

The 1953 presentation of Handel's Messiah, performed by the College Choir, A'Cappella Choir, Madrigal Singers, and Symphony Orchestra under the direction of Dr. Sardoni.

Mistletoe Frolic

The last dance of the season; sponsored by Delta Phi.

So Fall Quarter Ends

I must say ole boy, you do look rather English.

Ellen Keeler of Y Calcares receiving the trophy for the most outstanding assembly of Fall Quarter. The award is being presented by Jerry Asplund.

Whether it was the end of your first quarter at college or just another quarter's terminal in your college career, fall quarter was full of excitement. Church authorities frequented devotionals, two Englishmen debated before a BYU audience, and class parties were great. Activities such as these will never be forgotten.

Annette Kelsey and Marilyn Young exan Scott Partridge's socks during the Junior-Se Class party.

Studying isn't so bad when there are girls around.

A typical library scene.

Sleep comes, regardless of tomorrow's finals.

Snow

Crystal Carnival themed the 1954 AMS Snow Carnival which was marked by a "split-second" appearance of snow the night before sculpturing began, and by high-quality entries.

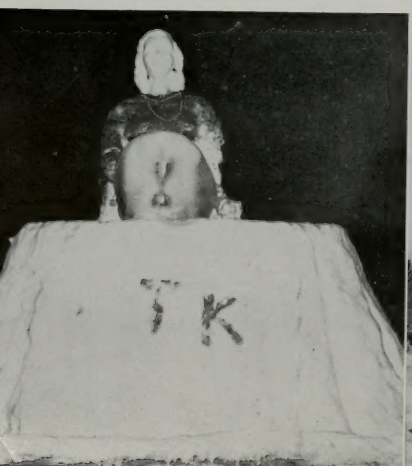

First place in snow sculturing went to the Art Guild for this masterful replica of a horse and rider.

Timp Haven produced an icy slush carnival for the enthusiastic skiers who held the races anyway.

Tokalon's "Gypsy" was good for a second place trophy.

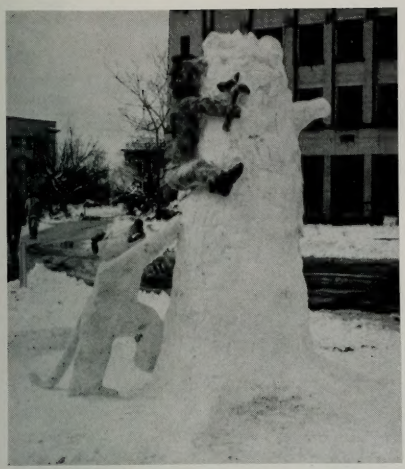

Cesta Tie took 3rd place honors with their creation of a clown and seal.

Athenian Social Unit made a strong bid for one of the trophies with its "Cougarous Provous."

Carnival

Bricker Social Unit's humorous entry of "Cosmo" chasing a Ute up the tree.

The beautiful ice sculpture of the Salt Lake Temple exhibited by Tausig Social Unit.

The finished product represents hours of labor and patience.

Banyan Ball and Assembly

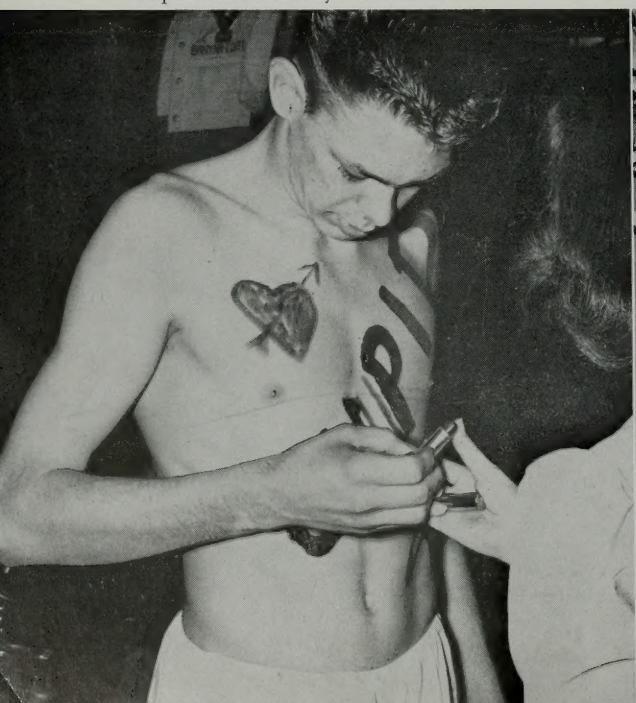

Movie stars Robert Stack and Jeanne Crain chose Banyan royalty Carol Kennedy, Sharlene DeWitt, and Norma Gregson from photographs of the six finalists.

Queen Carol Kennedy reigned over the annual Banyan festivities including an assembly and climaxed by a Ball. Themed "The Evolution of Love," the assembly traced love back to its origin, then it went "Out of This World" and into the Banyan Ball.

Jim Bartleson, narrator of "The Evolution of Love," is helped into character by a co-worker.

Universe Dance

"Snarf" Smith drags "Freda" Cullimore and "Worthal" Miller across the floor at the annual Universe dance.

Taking time out from the "grind" of publishing two newspapers a week, the Universe staff sponsored the fun-time Bibler Bounce, complete with Bibler cartoons, Snarf, Worthal, and Freda.

"Bouncers" slow to a romantic waltz as the lights are turned low.

La Traviata

After a professional performance, Valerie Sassine, Thursday and Saturday night leading lady, receives flowers and an enthusiastic hug from a friend.

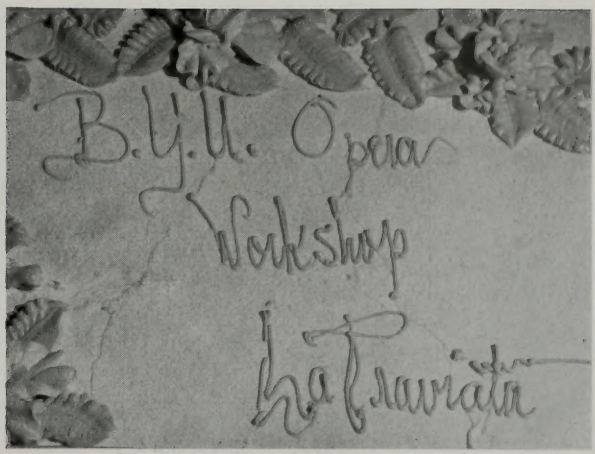

Wednesday and Friday night lead, Evelyn Terry, is congratulated by fellow members of the cast for her superb portrayal of the heroine, Violetta.

Drama behind the drama is displayed in backstage make-up scenes by Shirlene Fisher and Reed Miner.

The culmination of months of work and preparation, La Traviata was presented by the Opera Workshop in March. Using the system of double casting, the production gave valuable experience to the members of the organization and musical enjoyment to the studentbody.

To the cast, this cake—with thanks!

Sleep of Prisoners

Heaven can Wait

"Heaven Can Wait" is the story of a punch-drunk fighter who is called to heaven before his time. Since his body is cremated, he has to find another body to inhabit, and the process develops into a humorous comedy.

Jane Noble, Richard Bentley, Howard Driggs, Reba Titus.

AMS Fite Nite

Sponsored by the Associated Men Students, Fite Nite is one of the biggest events of the year for the fellows on campus. Exhibitions of many kinds of athletic activities including competition in sports such as boxing and wrestling are given.

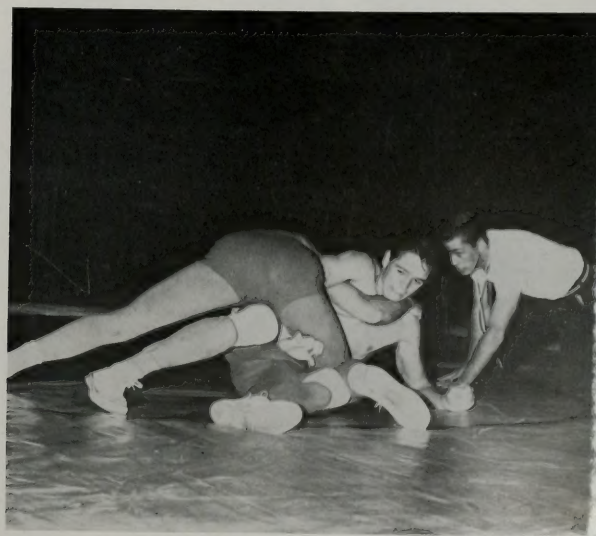

Referee Wayne Snoffe winces as boxer Jerald Palmer connects with a powerful body blow.

Francis Beck sets himself to receive the haymaker being prepared by Dee Wilde.

Belle of the Y

A week of activities honor the Belle of the Y, for she is truly a queen. She is judged on her talent, beauty, dancing, and cooking ability and then highlighted at a ball at the end of the week. Service honoraries, Y Calcares and Inter-collegiate Knights, sponor this event.

The Belle of the Y committee surround the bell for which this event was originated. They are: Preston Madsen, Lynn Staheli, Jeanette Boyack, Gary Hannig, Glyn Schmidt, Jean Sabin, and Alan Thomander.

There are many belles at BYU, and the men seem to enjoy the fact.

Candidates for Y Belle must exhibit their talent. Carol Dunford here explains her "Chalk Talks."

BYU's Belle will know how to please her future husband after excelling in the cake baking contest.

Boy With A Cart

Christopher Fry's poetic drama was the first experimental production of the Brigham Young University Theatre Group. Tom Stone, Lorna Erickson, and Doris Brown were cast in the leading roles.

"Mother, Mother, are you hurt?" Cuthman asked.
"Yes, Yes, I'm more than hurt—I'm injured!"

Glass Menagerie

"You're right, Mother! For once in your life you're right!"

"See how he shines!"

One of the best plays of the year, Tennessee Williams' "Glass Menagerie," starred Julie Groberg, Joan Johnson, Ted Hunter, and Bill Demos. This production marked the first use of projected scenery.

1954-5
Officer Campaigns

Enthusiasm and hard work during election time transforms the campus into a circus of signposts and sideshows.

A portion of the Science building lawn is decorated as a bookworm's haven.

Students read the billboards to decide their vote.

Attending the only studentbody formal ball of the year, the Junior Prom, is every girl's dream.

Orchids to Norm Jackson for this year's well-planned, original Junior Prom. In keeping with the theme of Emperium Isle, prom-goers stepped from their cars onto a tropical isle and then into the dance which was held in a ship's lounge beneath nodding palm trees and swaying fish net. And as a fitting climax, students enjoyed dancing to the music of Tex Beneke and his orchestra who were also aboard the ship.

Tex Beneke and his orchestra furnished the music for the Prom which was held two evenings in order to accommodate the studentbody.

Hard work and skill went into making this year's Prom an exotic wonderland.

The Prom assembly saw some fishy sights. Here the new Mrs. Business Manager—Vice President Edwards is carried off the stage after reciting her Mermaid Tale.

Song Fest

Nancy Rich awards Ken Perry, Bricker Social Unit's song conductor and La Rae Dunn, Nautilus Social Unit's music director, the winning cups. Linda Worsley, composer of Nautilus's song is on the left.

"New Horizons" themed the 1954 Song Fest which gave the audience the musical talents of BYU's men's and women's social units. Practicing at early morning and afternoon rehearsals, each unit learned an original song and, as a new feature this year, combined in singing a special selection.

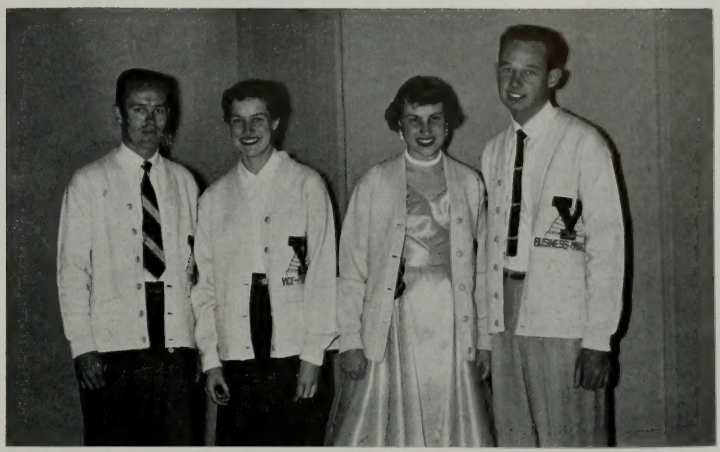

Linda Worsley, the girl who writes her music with a story in mind, composed the song that won honors for Nautilus Social Unit. Telling of a lazy little girl who will not clean up until she discovers that her little boyfriend is coming to dinner, the selection was well received by the audience.

Lead by BYU's Mr. Music, Virgil Camp, Bricker Social Unit garnished the winning laurels in the Song Fest men's division. Wearing tuxedos with white carnations, they rendered a striking performance. Truly, all the units who participated deserve recognition for the fine jobs they gave.

Inaugural Ball

Spring quarter brings more than spring and hay fever. Spring is election time, and to honor the candidates, the studentbody attends the Inaugural Ball at which the next year's officers are announced.

After being announced next year's Executive Council, these successful candidates donned the sweaters representing their new offices. They are: President Lloyd George, First Vice-President Dixie Robison, Secretary Naida Black, and Business Manager Roger Sant. Second Vice-President Ralph Boswell is missing from picture.

The BYU studentbody had a hard choice to make from these 1954 Officer hopefuls.

Women's Week

Each year the Associated Women Students sponsor a week dedicated to BYU's women. This year a Trousseau Treasures Tea, mat dance, Recognition Banquet, and Anals of Achievement award night were on the agenda.

China, silerwear, lingerie, and household appliances interest onlookers at the Trousseau Tea during Women's Week.

At the Women's Week Mat Dance Lucille Hulme, Martha Tingey, and Silvia Tyler auction off girls to the boys to dance to music played by an orchestra dressed as girls.

Scanning lovely articles such as these displayed at the Trousseau Treasures Tea help BYU girls to plan to be brides of the future.

Is this lunch ever life-saving after that big-day's work.

Girls can always have a good time even on Y Day while making the campus shine.

The 1954 Y Day went modern with short-wave radios and telephones connecting the various work locations on campus. As usual there was work and fun for all in cleaning up the campus and white-washing the Y. But all were rewarded with a brilliantly lighted Y and a three-ring-circus dance held in the open-air patios near the Family Life Units.

Y Day

Only one question—who is this bucket brigade white-washing?

Miss Atlantic City, Joyce Goodman, vamps Mr. Anthrobus (Man), Jack Whitaker, to assure that he doesn't escape the plagues of Adam by the "Skin of His Teeth," while a fortune teller, NaDeane Nielson, watches.

Senior Orchesis held their annual spring concert in the George Albert Smith fieldhouse in conjunction with the AWS Anals of Achievement.

Where e're

The Cesta Tie, Saxon, and Argonaut Social Units, illustrate some clever dance routines in their student assembly.

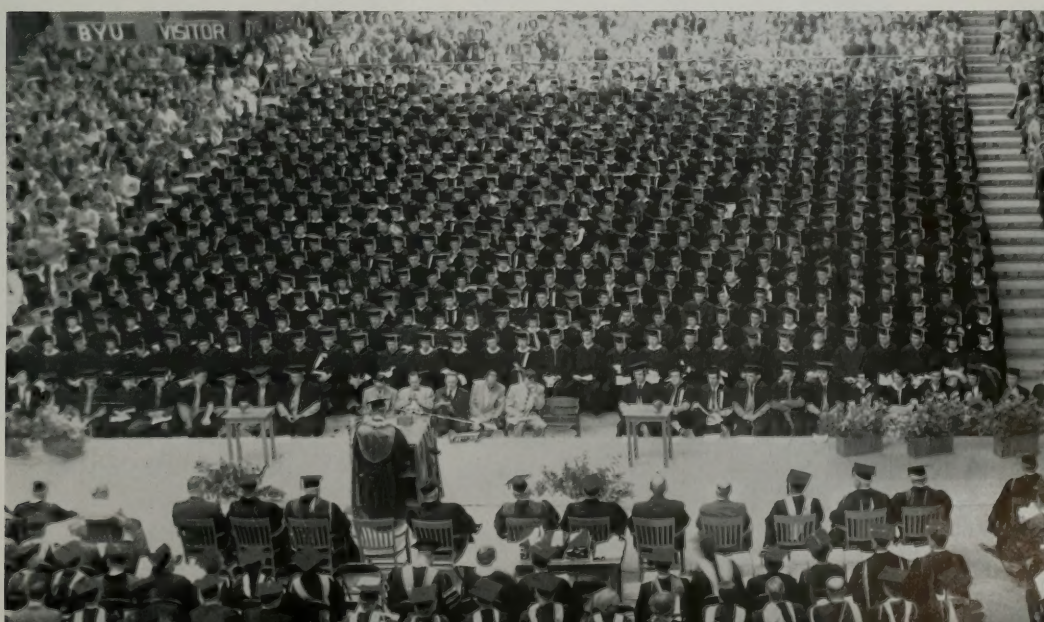

To get a different view of things, students hike to Squaw Peak's heights.

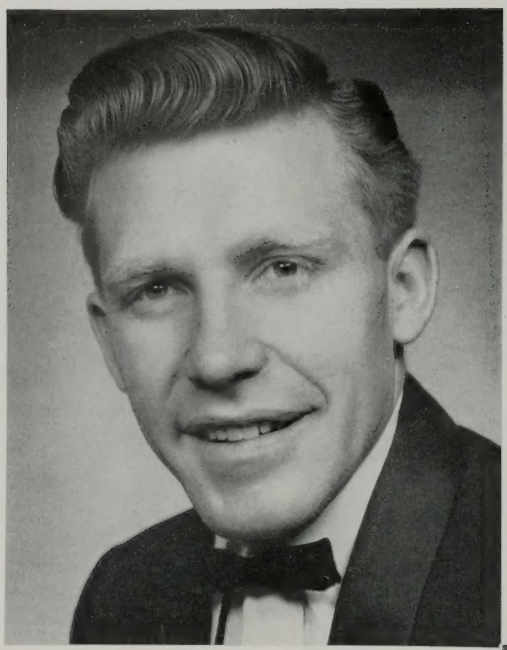

Dorothy Bartels receives a much-deserved honor as the most active girl on campus from Betty Hatch, co-chairman of the AWS Recognition Banquet.

We Go, the Y's Spirit will live Forever

Commencement exercises—the end of college life, but the beginning of a life of experience and adventure—is always an impressive sight to seniors and lower classmen.

California Club

Jerry Crandall
President

Jerry Crandall, club president, has spent a busy year organizing entertainment for the California students on campus. A canyon party at the beginning of the year started the activity schedule rolling. During spring quarter they participated in a very successful exchange party with the Idaho and Weber Clubs. They held firesides monthly and Jerry provided the members with a swimming party to add to the enjoyable accomplishments. At Christmas time they chartered a bus to Northern California to return home together.

UTAH VALLEY

Who can forget it? BYU won a moral victory that Thanksgiving Day in spite of the fact that the final score gave the Utah Indians a slight edge. Before TV fans across the nation and actual spectators, BYU fought clean and hard to give the nation one of the most exciting games of the year.

Galuska is upending us in more ways than one.

The Cougars had an up and down season in football—up for the big teams and seemingly down for the weaker ones. One of the more unusual games was the 12-12 tie in New Mexico's "dust bowl." Playing before millions, by the medium of television, the magnificent Cougars gained more than enough glory to eclipse an otherwise below-par season of 2 wins, 7 losses, and 1 tie. Four to five touchdown underdogs, the Cats completely outplayed Utah in the Utah stadium on Thanksgiving. The fact that the Redskins narrowly escaped with their helmets was a tribute to the fighting, never-say-die spirit of a great Cougar football team.

The Frosh Squad in action!

Frosh Football

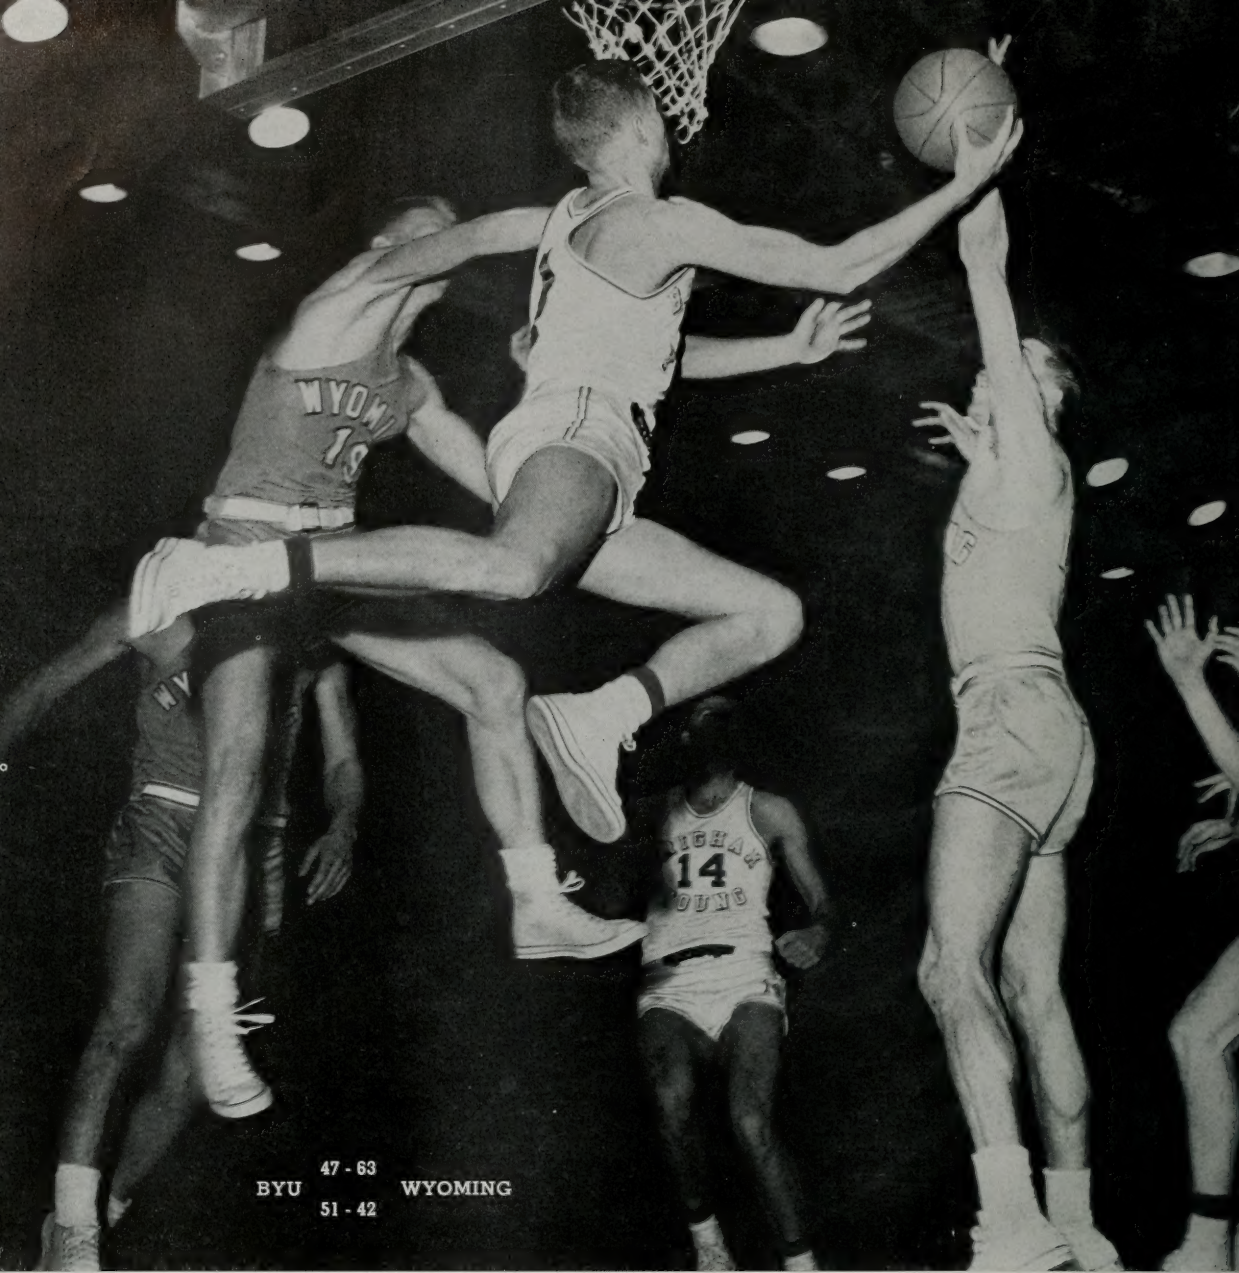

The frosh football squad under the capable direction of the former BY High mentor, Owen Dixon, compiled a record of 1 win, 1 loss, and 1 tie. The Kittens lost a heartbreaker to Snow Junior College 16-14, but bounced back to slap the Papooses from Utah, 7-6. They closed the season by battling the USAC frosh to a 7-7 deadlock.

Row 3: Dave Crowton, assistant coach; Don Jardine, Glenn Taylor, Vaughn Rasmussen, LaLae Smith, Lamont McDonald, Marlo Holland, Dave McLaren, John Cobabe, Dean Gillespie, Coach Owen Dixon.

Jammed fieldhouse crowds thrilled at playing such as this that resulted in the appointment of Dean Larsen to the All-American Team.

Working with some fine teams, Coach Stan Watts succeeded in compiling one hundred wins in less than five years. He was the sixth such coach in the entire country ever to attain such prominence. This year Coach Watts built a fine team that included a number of sophomores.

Montana surrounds Anderson as Pedersen bawls.

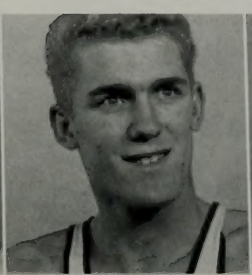

The Cats and Utes fouled the ball gazers as we won on their court and vice versa.

Pre-season dopesters tabbed the Cougar's casaba team as the team to beat in the Skyline Conference. Luck seemed occasionally to run out in the third quarter and not return in time, but with the stellar play of All-American Dean Larsen and other Cougar stalwarts the Cats grabbed third place in the conference and gained a bid to the National Invitational Tournament only to lose their first game.

Pre-season hopes ran high for the Cougar netters as the team, bolstered by a number of returning lettermen, limber their rackets. The end of the tennis season will see how well they fared.

Coach Fred Dixon

Coach "Buck" Dixon has his hands full this year in grooming his tennis players for the conference title and in attempting to keep his golffers undefeated.

Track

Coach Clarence Robison has a number of new men to test his coaching ability. These fledglings together with the veterans give Coach Robison a hopeful outlook for this year's track season. Pictured with coach is Co-captain Wayne Lundell who shares this honor with Lee Nichols.

As spring breaks, the Cougar diamond artists can be seen conditioning their bats and arms. Although set down in three out of four games on a junket to California, the Cougars gained much needed experience and showed of better things to come. Bolstered by veterans and new prospects, the outlook for Cougarville is very good.

Coach Dave Crowton has an exceptional record during his two years of coaching prior to this year. In 1952, his Cats won the Skyline Conference championship. Nineteen hundred fifty-three saw the Cougar nine lose out to Utah in the Western Division playoff. Good luck to you this year, Coach!

The golf team, undefeated in two matches last year, is looking forward to another successful year on the greens. The linksters are few in numbers, but with the excellent coaching of Coach Dixon they will be right in the thick of the fight.

Under the direction of Dave Geddes and Boyd Lake intramural activities enjoyed one of its best years at the "Y." Dave (who is now on leave of absence) and Boyd had some excellent help from Jim Hill who was the assistant director. Never before has there been more interest and participants in the intramural program.

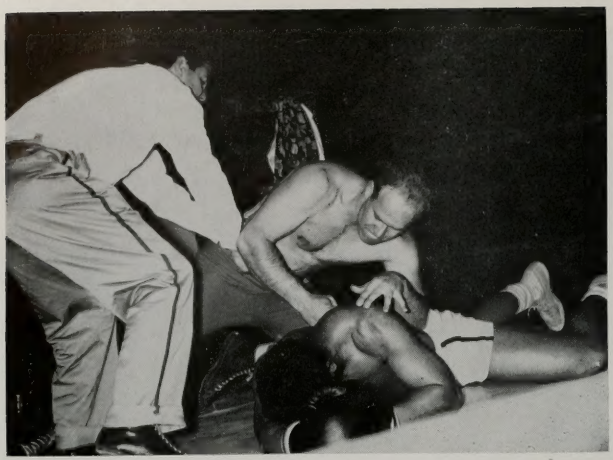

Intramural Champions

Another interesting event in intramural sports is Fite Nite, and this year a large crowd saw some excellent bouts. One of the features was this boxer-wrestler grudge match.

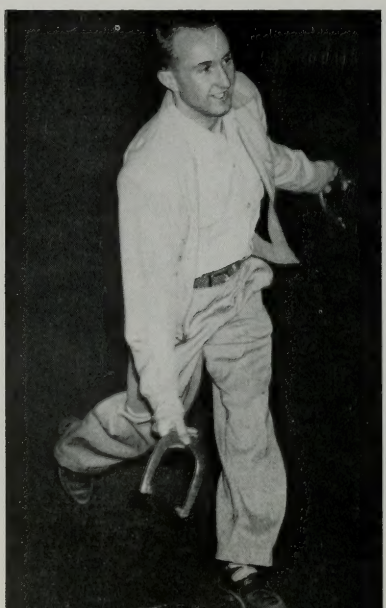

Lloyd Richmond and Maurice Ballif slammed their way to the handball doubles title over Nick Mateljan and Lynn Tolman.

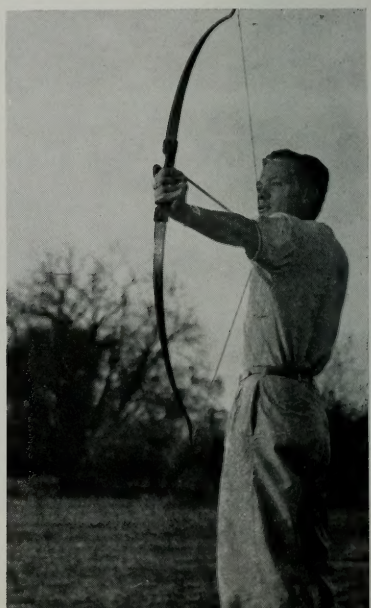

Gary Madsen, freshman, captured first place in the tennis singles.

The man who pulled through with first place honors in the horseshoes singles was Jerry McAffee.

Richard Davidson, junior, proved to be top man in the archery division.

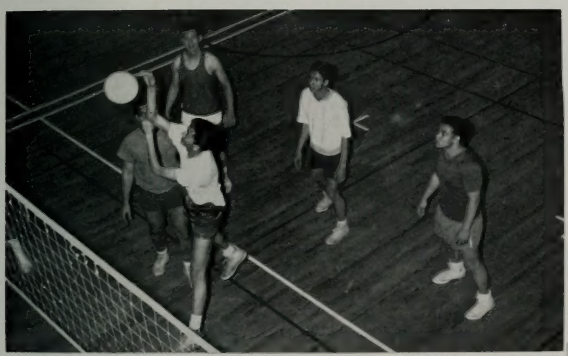

Battling to the top of their respective divisions were Intramural golf champs Roy Jarman, Larry Bean, and Dave Parkinson.

The "winning twins," Sherald James and Wayne Lundell, won the cross country run in their typical style. Walt Steffensen was runner up.

The fabulous Hawaiian Club volleyball team repeated as champs this year. They copped the All-Church title last year.

Barbara Chun and Marianne Halverson display badminton techniques during tournament play.

Cesta Tie copped Social Unit honors in the Basketball tournament with Las Finas and the Hawaiian club placing first in P.E. majors and independent brackets, respectively.

The Women's Sports agenda this year featured volleyball, basketball, bowling, a ski meet, a swimming meet, softball, table tennis, foul pitch, and badminton. Among other activities were weekend canyon parties, swimming excursions to Saratoga, and co-educational parties with men P.E. majors at the field house. Also sponsored was a basketball sports day with the University of Utah coeds of which the BYU lassies came out victorious in all 3 games.

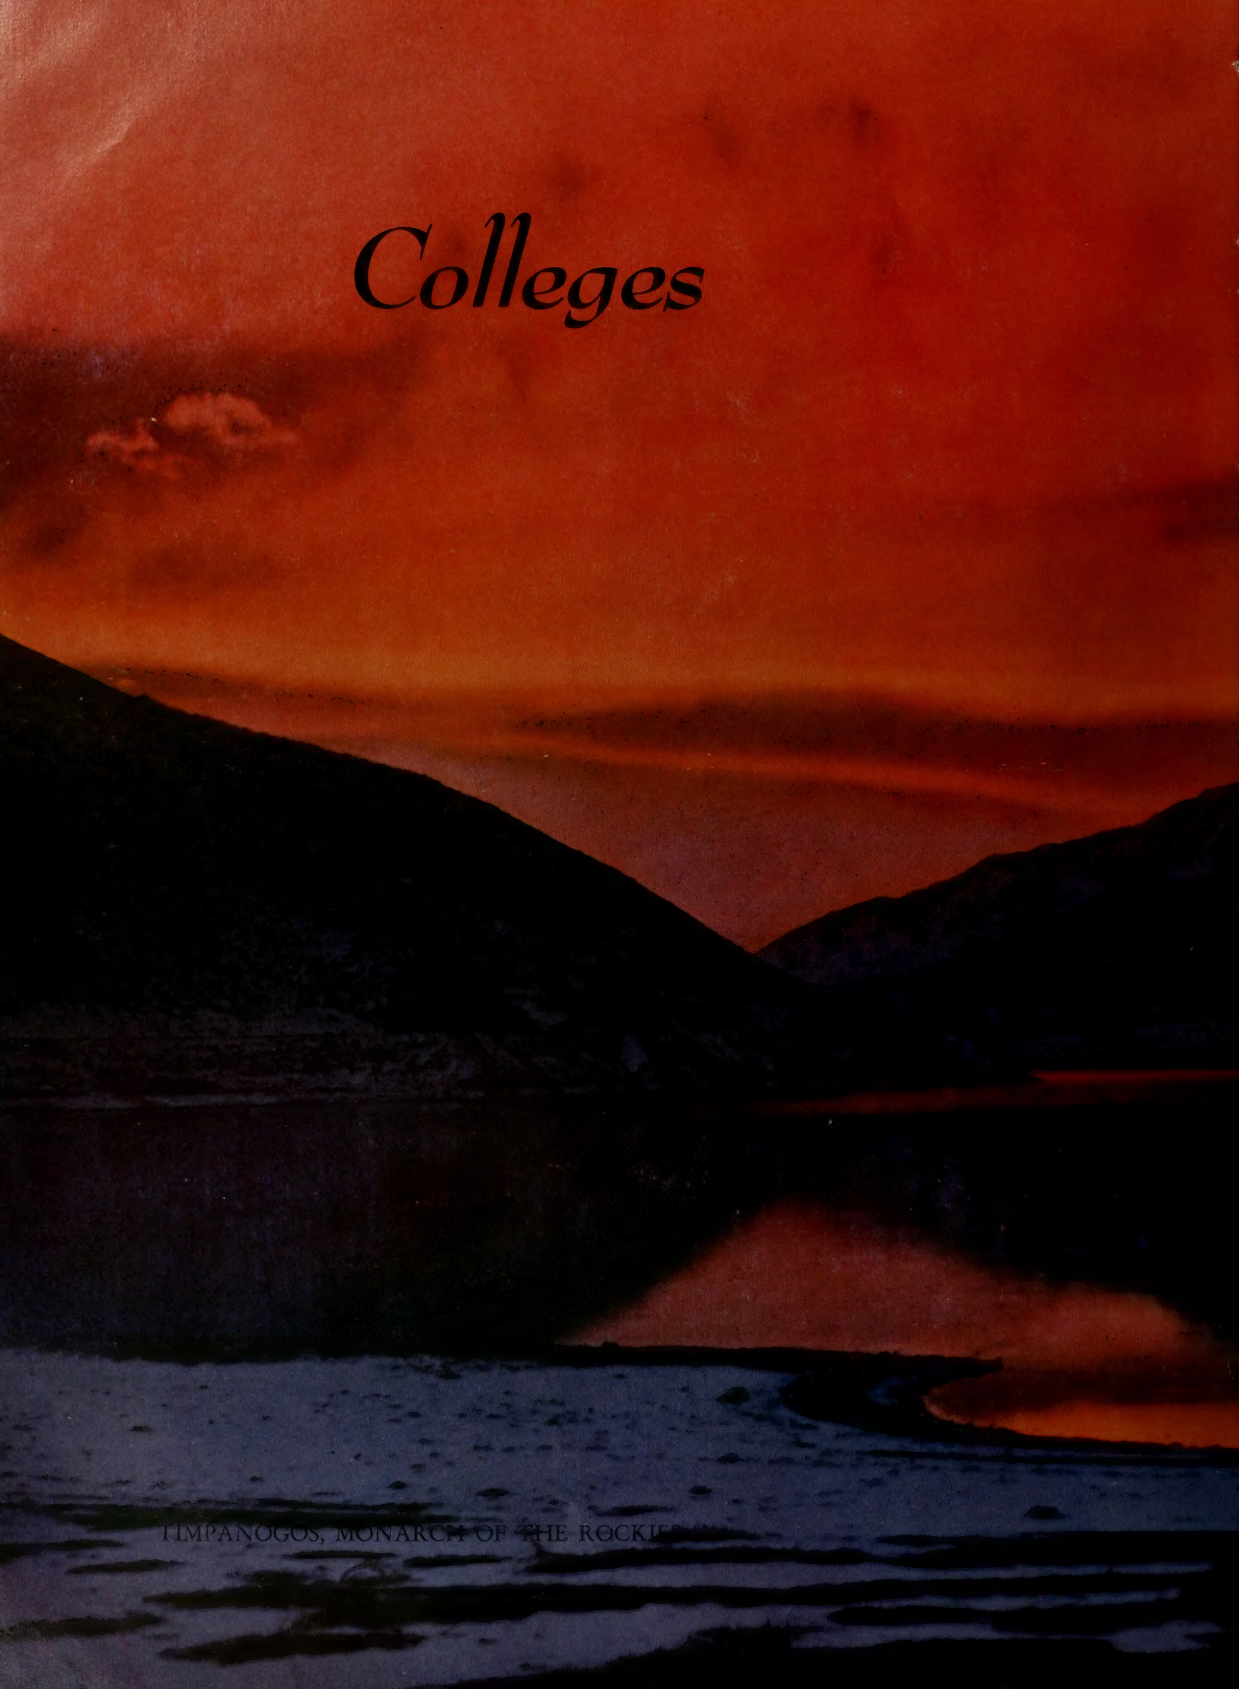

Champs for the table tennis tournament were: Singles, Allie Graham, and doubles, Alice Bell and Doris Neser.

With spring in the air, Joyce Anderson and Irene Oates stand ready for the big pitch.

German Club

Guten Tag—During the current year, David Dalton, club president, planned many activities for the club's benefit. In keeping with the club's objective—learning more of German culture, the second-year German students participated in German-speaking debates. Also included in this year's activities was a series of lectures on the educational systems of Germany.

The German Club is composed of those students who study the German language and desire to participate in extra-curricular activity.

R.O.T.C. Band

Dick Ballou
Director

Give a cheer for the band as they march out on the football field! Dependable playing at basketball games and making student life more pleasant in general, the members of this band are taken directly from the R.O.T.C. ranks. Most of them are specializing in fields other than music, yet they willingly participate and support school activities.

Mary Lind Irons
President

Clyde Bartlett leads the discussion on childhood education.

The Association of Childhood Education is an international organization which was formed in 1930. Its purpose is to work for the education and well being of children. The BYU student branch has 73 members who are affiliated with the International Association through the branch.

Fine

By learning to sculpture, students may express what they see to others.

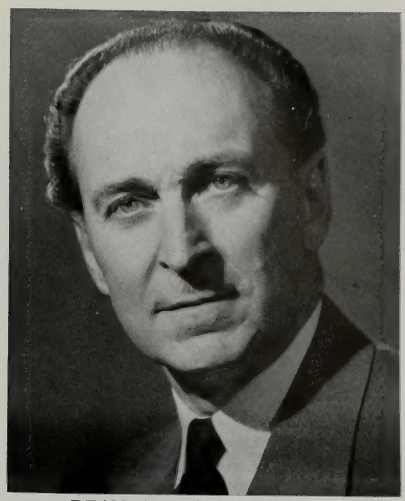

Talents of self-expression and portrayals of life are achieved on the stage through inspiring drama and opera. (Scene from the Opera "La Traviata.")

Emotions are dynamic expressions in drama. (Scene from the play "Glass Menagerie.")

Arts

Students are encouraged in this college not to hide their talents, but to give of their talents so others may enjoy the beauties of music, art, speech and dramatic arts.

Madrigal Chorus

Italy during the 14th century was the scene of the first madrigal singing in which groups congregate to sing ballads and folk songs. BYU's Madrigal Chorus, emulating these same customs, gave concerts in the major cities of the East, including a special concert for the Secretary of Agriculture, Ezra T. Benson.

Dr. Halliday directs a concert piece during the tour through Idaho.

Opera Workshop

Dr. Don L. Earl
Director

As a climax to months of hard work, the opera workshop sponsored "La Traviata" which introduced new voices and talents to the school and gave the participants the experience of singing and acting together. In addition, the workshop participated in many off-campus tours including a trip to Salt Lake City to sing at General Conference.

The School of Nursing prepares young men and women to become professional nurses who can contribute to comprehensive patient care, to the prevention of illness, and the promotion of health.

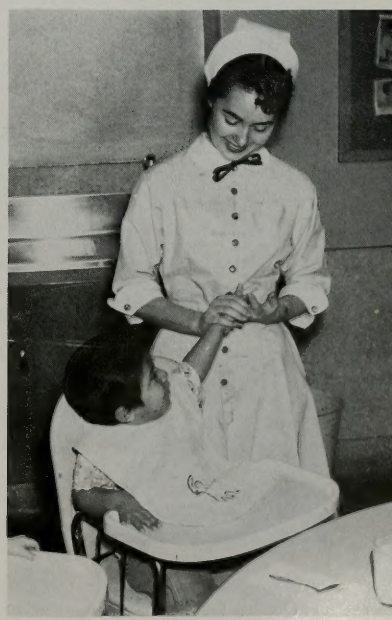

BYU's nurses particularly enjoy caring for the babies in the Latter-day Saint Hospital nursery in Salt Lake City.

Technique and comprehensive knowledge are learned in the Provo laboratories while giving hypodermic injections.

In Salt Lake the nurses learn to help children who come to the Primary Children's Hospital from all over the West.

Winter Quarter Students

Without a staff who radiated the same spirit I have spoken of throughout this book—the Y's Spirit—this yearbook could never have been completed. I am greatly indebted to the students who worked diligently with no remuneration to serve their school and to the craftsmen of the Utah Printing, Mountain States Bindery, Ridges Engraving, Deseret News Press, and the California Art & Engraving Companies who cooperated to bring you this record of 1953-4.

And so, Mr. B. Y. Woo graduates from Brigham Young University, as perhaps you are, but he will always remember, as I am sure you will, the essence that brought him here and kept him happy here, The SPIRIT of the Y.
